

"AIN'T IT THE TRUTH"

"Your local paper tells you when to go to church, to county court, to send your children to school, a hundred other things," says a prominent minister of the gospel. It is you who is dead, who is married, who is sick, who is born, and many other things worth knowing. It calls attention to public entertainments, advocates the best schools, of law and order in town. It records the marriage of your daughter, the death of your son, the illness of your wife, free of charge. It sets forth the advantages and attractions of your town, invites immigration, and is the first to welcome newcomers. Yet, in spite of all these benefits, some people say the home paper is not half as good as the city paper that has no interest in their business or success. The home paper, like the church, is too often neglected by those who are benefited by it."

THE MAKING OF CHARACTER.

Do not let us suppose that character requires great circumstances. There are huge manufacturing cities, with magnificent machinery, with chimneys belching forth clouds of smoke to pollute the air, where they turn out carpets of most wonderful aspects, which would almost make you ill to look at, and which perish quickly in the using. Far away in the East, in some poor little hut, an Eastern workman is working with threads of many colors beside him; he has been toiling for years, and when he has finished he will have turned out a single square of such beautiful coloring and comes to this country it will be bought at a great price, and the owner's great-grandchildren will see it fresh and beautiful. So much for the great manufacturing and the whirling wheels and the noise and the smoke; so much for the quietness and obscurity of a single workman,—"I am MacLaren."

USES NEWSPAPERS ONLY.

I never in my life used such a thing as a poster or dodger or hand-bill, says John Wamaker, in the Wool and Cotton Reporter. My plan for twenty years has been to buy so much space in a newspaper and fill it up as I wanted. I would not give an advertisement in a newspaper of five hundred circulation for five thousand dodgers or posters. If I wanted to sell cheap jewelry or run a gambling scheme I might use posters; but I would not insult a decent reading public with hand bills. The class of people who read them are too poor to look to support in mercantile affairs. I deal directly with the publisher. I say to him: "How long will you let me run a column of matter through your paper for $100 or $500?" as the case may be. I let him do the figuring, and if I think he is not trying to take more from my share I give him the copy. I lay aside the profits on a particular line of goods for advertising purposes. At first I laid aside $3,000; last year I laid aside and spent $40,000. I have done better this year, and shall increase the sum as the profits warrant it. I owe my success to newspapers, and to them I freely give a certain profit of my yearly business.

He that seeks to pick holes in the character of others digs into his own soul with the but end of his weapon. That young man who drinks, bets, swears, gambles and idles away his time, is on a thin place on the ice.

We should remember that sorrow is in us, and not in the things about us; so with joy. The world is but a mirror in which we are constantly reflected.

If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man should keep his friendship in constant repair.

It does not matter whether you and I suffer. "Not enjoyment and not sorrow" as our life,—Not sorrow any more than enjoyment, but obedience and duty. If duty brings sorrow, let it bring sorrow.

A boy's idea of having a tooth drawn may be summed up as follows: "The doctor hitched fast on me, pulled his best, and just before he killed me the tooth came out."

There are people who lose a great deal in this world because of a tendency which they have to put the wrong meaning upon a particularly good work. You speak of tenderness, and straightway they think of weakness; you speak of meekness, and they think of backbonelessness. Will not somebody recommend to these good people a dictionary.

Say "No" when a dealer offers you a substitute for Hood's Sarsaparilla. There is nothing "just as good." Get only Hood's.

General Greene, of Manila fame, has been ordered to go with the Cuban army.

Urgent applications for a discharge from the army continue and is causing much embarrassment to the administration.

Feeling the Fire.

The most powerful engine must stop if the fire is not put out. Man is the most powerful piece of machinery in the world, yet he must stop if the fire of passion is not put out. The reason man becomes helpless and diseased is because the food he eats, which is the fuel of life, is not properly digested and assimilated by the stomach and nutritive organs. It is not completely transformed into the strength and working power which is to man what steam is to the engine.

GUESS HE WAS.

Nellie, aged 3, was out walking with her father, but soon became tired, and he was obliged to carry her. "Is it very heavy, papa?" she asked, as he set her down a moment to rest. "Indeed you are," he replied. "Say, papa," continued the little miss, "isn't you dest awfvl tickled at I ain't twins?"

Ma'or Frank Gordon, a son of General John B. Gordon, of Georgia, is missing. He was ordered home from Cuba on account of unbecoming conduct.

Yellow fever has broken out in Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana.

After meals you should have simply a feeling of comfort and satisfaction. You should not feel any special indications that digestion is going on. If you do, you have indigestion, which means no-digestion. This may be the beginning of so many dangerous diseases, that it is best to take it in hand at once and treat it with Shaker Digestive Cordial. For you know that indigestion makes poison, which causes pain and sickness. And that Shaker Digestive Cordial does this by providing the digestive materials in which the sick stomach is wanting. It also tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and makes them perfectly healthy. This is the rationale of its method of cure, as the doctors would say.

To Our Subscribers.

Complaints have come to us of late that THE GAZETTE fails to reach some of our subscribers on time, and in some instances do not reach the office at all. The papers are put in the Lexington postoffice Wednesday afternoon and go out by the first mail Thursday. Subscribers will please notify us when papers fail to reach them, and the matter will be looked into.

How much are you worth? Measured by the tape-line of this world's valuation you are rich or poor, worth much or little, according to the dollars you own. Measured by the rule of heaven, and you are worth just what you can take into the next life. The man who possesses in this life a million dollars is not worth a cent the moment after he is dead. Bank books are out of place in a dead man's coffin. Shrouds have no pockets. All the wealth of the universe could not purchase a single moment of time or help a man to retain his hold upon his earthly riches for one hour. You are worth whatever of good deeds you have to your credit on the other side of death. If you have been honest, upright, faithful, full of kindness, and have built your character along these lines you are rich. If you have been narrow-minded, covetous, hard-hearted, self-seeking, you are poor indeed, even though the wealth of a good mine is yours.

Under a recent Act of the General Assembly treasurers are required to send in report of collections within five days from December 1st. Therefore, taxpayers will please not ask me to hold their tickets until Court Day or any day after the last of November, as it is important for me to close my accounts promptly.

"Any person failing to pay any state tax or county levies to the treasurer BY THE FIRST OF DECEMBER, shall incur a penalty of three per centum, which shall be added to the amount of taxes and levies due from such taxpayer, which, when collected by the treasurer or his deputies, shall be accounted for in his settlement."—(A part of the 18th Sec. of the Act referred to.)

Persons owning land not in their own name will call for such tickets when settling their own, otherwise they will have the 3 per cent. to pay, as it is impossible for the treasurer to keep posted on all land sales in the county.
